

Tech Prep

LFCC has a consortium of members representing each of the public school divisions in the service region, College representatives, and business and industry representatives. Tech Prep is incorporated in the Career Pathways initiative. All high school counselors are provided with a Career Pathways manual that details College programs of study and transition from high school. College credit is available through the dual enrollment program.