

Libraries and Learning Resources

The libraries of LFCC are open to the public without charge. The collection of approximately 62,000 cataloged items supports the College's academic programs and student interests. The collection consists of books, journals, video recordings, DVDs, compact discs, computer programs, newspapers, electronic books and a host of other print-based materials. The library catalog is accessible through the College's Web site at <http://www.lfcc.edu>. In addition, materials move between the College's two campuses daily by courier.

Materials not available in the libraries can be obtained through Interlibrary Loan from other libraries worldwide. The libraries participate in a statewide academic consortium called VIVA, providing access to electronic databases of all kinds, including over 8,000 full-text journals. Off-campus access to all of these resources is available to students, faculty and staff. The libraries also provide high-speed Internet access.

The highly skilled library staff is dedicated to providing the highest quality service possible. They assist students in the use of the Internet and library research databases.

On the Fauquier Campus, the Bob G. Sowder Library is home to a growing collection of resources that support the College's programs and personal interests. Special facilities include 11 study rooms, nine for one or two persons and three large group study/library instruction rooms.

On the Middletown Campus, the Paul Wolk Library contains most of LFCC's collection of materials. The library houses the William B. Remington Archives Room.
