10 Ways LFCC is Here For YOU!

1. Three convenient locations — Fauquier and Middletown Campuses and the Luray-Page County Center — that are close to your home and work

2. Low tuition rates that are approximately one-third the cost of attending a four-year institution in Virginia

3. Flexible scheduling with day, evening, weekend and Internet courses

4. One-on-one attention in the classroom from professors who care about their students

5. Quality education with a wide variety of degree and certificate programs to choose from

6. Financial aid and scholarships available to help defray the cost of tuition, books and fees

7. Well-equipped libraries that provide an abundance of resources for projects and ample high-speed Internet connections for research

8. Transfer/articulation agreements with four-year colleges and universities in Virginia, enabling a smooth transition from LFCC to other institutions

9. Helpful student services such as academic advising, career planning, online registration/payment and tutoring services

10. Fun student activities and opportunities for leadership development through club and athletic involvement

What is your major, and why did you choose it?

Associate of Arts and Sciences Degree in Liberal Arts: Fine Arts Specialization. When I was in high school, I wanted to study fine arts. I was very interested in drawing, but my father disagreed with me studying art for several reasons. I gave up my dream at that time.

If you had one piece of advice for an individual trying to choose a college, what would it be?

LFCC is a good place to begin to fulfill your dream and goal. The dedicated professors and the variety of programs will help you on your path.

LFCC is Here for YOU and Matthew and Renard Carlos, Twins!

What made you decide to attend LFCC?

Matt: I was undecided on which four-year school to attend. Renard: I wanted further education before deciding on a major.

What do you like most about LFCC?

Matt: The people and small class sizes. Renard: Great opportunities and employees.

What is your major, and why did you choose it?

Matt: General studies at LFCC, with plans to study international relations at a four-year institution. Renard: General studies at LFCC, with plans to study political science at a four-year school.

If you had one piece of advice for an individual trying to choose a college, what would it be?

Matt: First, understand who you are and what your goals are before deciding where to spend the next four years of your life. Renard: Surround yourself with positive people who know you and understand what you are looking for in life.

Matt and Renard: LFCC is an excellent place to develop skills, realize talents and set future goals - all while having a great time making life-long friends.
