Lord Fairfax Community College
Surgical Technology Program
Estimate of Fees and Expenses

TEAS V for Allied Health (per attempt) ........................................... $35.00-$75.00
Uniform (per set) .............................................................................. Approx. $50.00
Operating Room Shoes ................................................................. $50.00
Textbooks and Required Supplemental Materials ....................... $400.00
Student supply pack ......................................................................... $75.00
National Certification Examination ................................................. $250.00
(Includes review material)
Tuition
Virginia Residents ($134.00/credit x 46 credits) ......................... $6,164.00
Out-of-State Residents ($310.60 credit x 46 credits) ..................... $14,287.60
Technology Fee (per credit hour, per semester) .............................. $8.50
Student Activity Fee (per credit hour, per semester) ....................... $2.15
Auxiliary Fee (per semester) ............................................................ $27.00
Background Search, Drug Screen, Finger Printing ....................... $61.00
CPR Certification ............................................................................ Varied
Physical Examination ....................................................................... Varied
Immunizations, Titers, if needed .................................................. Varied

Transportation to and from Clinical Sites (Student responsibility)

Note that fees and expenses are subject to change